

Irvine Partners opens new offices in Ghana

A public relations and marketing firm, Irvine Partners, has opened an office in Ghana to meet the growing demand for its services.

This multinational agency, which has offices in the United Kingdom, South Africa, Kenya and Nigeria, serves global and regional clients in sectors such as technology, financial services, real estate, tourism and cannabis.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>