

Leap Communications on-board with launch of new career tabloid

Leap Communications is conducting a publicity campaign for Circulation Innovations' launch of Jobs for Africa - a new, independent, career-focused tabloid which will be launched in KwaZulu-Natal on Friday, 6 July.

The weekly, 20-page publication will expand to Gauteng and the Western Cape early next year. It will be published on Fridays and start with a print run of 20 000 copies.

The tabloid is published by Circulation Innovations and will be available at cafés, garages, and supermarkets, as well as at spazas and street vendors in cities and townships.
