

Wonderbag's wonderful Mandela Day

The Wonderbag Foundation has given back this Mandela Day by feeding hundreds of people from a local community with warm and nutritious food.

CEO and Founder of the Wonderbag, Sarah Collins addressing the guests at the successful feeding initiative.

Volunteers handing out food packs to excited attendees.

Wonderbags being given out to happy recipients.

Volunteers handing out Wonderbags to happy recipients.

Volunteers handing out Wonderbags to happy recipients.

A grateful recipient with his Wonderbag.

The initiative took place at the Belvedere Community Centre. All 25 of the Wonderbag staff members were involved in the logistics, preparation and serving of the food and the cleaning up after the event.

The traditional South African dish of chicken curry and rice, together with refreshments, was provided to approximately 600 people on the day.