

Ditch the car and try these alternative transport options

Uber has partnered with TEDxCapeTown to get all guests to and from TEDXCapeTown safely and in style. All new users can sign up here with the promotional code: TEDxCAPETOWN in order to receive a free first ride. To request your ride, simply download the free application for iPhone, Android, Blackberry 7, Windows Phone, or visit the mobile site: m.uber.com.

Uber is an on-demand service that seamlessly connects you with a private driver at the tap of a button. The entire service is cash free and the fare is deducted directly from your card on file. For questions, please contact Uber at supportcapetown@uber.com.

Are we really free to choose more cost effective environmentally savvy options to move?

Yes. What is required is some time to experiment, knowledge to make better choices and co-creators willing to share experiences in order for progress to happen. TEDxCape Town is the perfect opportunity to allow yourself to try something new when it comes to physically accessing the city.

Please note that parking near the City Hall building is very limited as the Grand Parade is no longer the domain of vehicles. This is an opportunity to leave your car behind and try one of these alternative options:

1. Join the Bicycle Bus

Arriving at City Hall at 8:30am. This group commute from the Southern Suburbs allows newbie riders and individuals to be guided by a more experienced 'bus driver' on a predetermined route that picks up riders along the way. Bus starts at Rondebosch Common parking lot at 7:45am. Safe bicycle parking available inside City Hall. For more info or an alternative departure point please email kir.wilkins@gmail.com.

2. Bike share

Make your way to &Bikes bicycle lifestyle shop on the corner of Loop and Waterkant Streets. Rent your bike at a reduced rate and enjoy a delicious complimentary coffee before departing. This ride will be guided. On the return of your bicycle, &Bikes will offer cyclists a complimentary glass of wine.

Cost: R50 for bike, helmet, lock, coffee and wine. Email kir.wilkins@gmail.com to reserve your bike.

3. MyCiti Bus

Visit www.myciti.org.za to find your nearest station and timetables. Consider cycling to the nearest station if necessary. Bicycles are welcome on busses at no extra charge. Connect for free from the Civic Centre stop to the 103 bus and hop off on Buitenkant street for a short walk to City Hall. Be sure to purchase your R30 Myciti Card before boarding and enjoy the city's world class bus system.

4. Metrorail

Catch a train into the city and enjoy a short walk to City Hall from the Central Station. After TEDxCapeTown festivities are over, consider using Uber to make your way home.

For timetables and stations visit www.getgometroapp.com or download the City's combined mobility app called TCT (android and iphone).

5. Carpooling

As a last resort, cars can be accommodated on Harrington Square on Caledon Street with a short walk to City Hall. Thanks to Woodheads for providing this service. Cars may park in this area free of charge provided that there are two or more occupants per vehicle. Find a TEDx friend and park for free. Limited parking in the area on side streets is also available. As with all modes of transport, please drive, park and walk carefully.

Accenture South Africa has partnered with TEDxCapeTown in 2015 to ensure #IdeasWorthSpreading*

About TEDx, x=independently organised event

In the spirit of ideas worth spreading, TEDx is a program of local, self organised events that bring people together to share a TED-like experience. At a TEDx event, TEDTalks video and live speakers combine to spark deep discussion and connection in a small group.

These local, self-organised events are branded TEDx, where x=independently organised TED event. The TED Conference provides general guidance for the TEDx program, but individual TEDx events are self-organised.*

About TED

TED is a global community, welcoming people from every discipline and culture who seek a deeper understanding of the world. We believe passionately in the power of ideas to change attitudes, lives and, ultimately, the world. On TED.com, we're building a clearinghouse of free knowledge from the world's most inspired thinkers - and a community of curious souls to engage with ideas and each other, both online and at TED and TEDx events around the world, all year long.
