

CBC unveils malty beer as part of new range

The Cape Brewing Company (CBC) has launched a brand new range of craft beer. CBC unveiled its Dunkel or Dark Lager as part of its Brewmaster's Reserve range on 4 August 2017.

This range of craft beer was developed and produced by head brewers Anton Trollip and Dewald Goosen alongside brewers Siegfried Kisting, Shawn Adams, and Chris Spirdens. The Dunkel Brewmaster's Reserve is described as a malty beer with caramel and toffee flavours.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>