

16 women graduate from Tourism EDP

Sixteen women have graduated from the executive development programme (EDP) through Unisa Graduate School for Business Leadership (Unisa SBL) in Pretoria. The graduation ceremony was officiated by Tourism Minister Tokozile Xasa and deputy Telecommunications Minister Stella Ndabeni-Abrahams.

The EDP for women in tourism is a joint initiative between the Department of Tourism and Unisa. The programme is aimed at empowering women in an effort to create a more inclusive, highly competitive, and sustainable tourism sector.
