

OUTsurance supports SA's Covid-19 efforts with R102m commitment

OUTsurance has committed R102m towards a Covid-19 response plan, as part of its Helping SA OUT campaign. This includes relief for OUTsurance service providers that are impacted by the inability to work, as well as for clients who may experience financial difficulty during this tough time. In addition, it plans to provide protective equipment for healthcare workers and is making a contribution to the Solidarity Response Fund, announced by the president.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>