

Girl power takes to space

14 young women attended SpaceTrek, a week long bootcamp organised by MEDO (Meta Economic Development Organisation).

The camp was held from 5-11 January in Worcester. A team of experts from South Africa and the States led the schoolgirls in an intensive introduction in telecommunications, satellite construction, calibration and data analysis.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>