

Nelly Mofokeng appointed managing director for JA South Africa

Nelly Mofokeng has been appointed by non-profit organisation, Junior Achievement South Africa, as its new managing director.

Mofokeng will be tasked with organisational fundraising, leadership, support and guidance for permanent and part-time staff, funder and stakeholder relations, as well as ensuring that compliance to funding commitments are met. Mofoken will furthermore track and support sustainability initiatives by engaging with board members in developing business strategy and communication consistency.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>