

The Basha Uhuru Creative Uprising kicks off on 16 November

The Basha Uhuru Creative Uprising, which will bring creatives together and develop creative talent within a variety of art forms, is set to take place from 16 to 21 November at Constitution Hill in Johannesburg. This year's festival will feature art, music, design, film, and poetry events, as well as seminars, workshops, webinars, and masterclasses.

The Constitution Hill Creative Collab, an ongoing programme designed to support designer-makers during the festival, is set to be launched at the festival. Panellists include young designers such as Sifiso Shange, Siyanda Mble and Glorinah Mabasa.

Click here to book tickets and learn more about the festival.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>