

Marguerite Poland takes home the Sunday Times Literary Award

South African writer and author, Marguerite Poland has been awarded the 2021 Sunday Times/CNA Literary Award for Fiction for her historical novel A Sin of Omission. The book was also shortlisted for the Walter Scott Prize for Historical Fiction 2020.

A Sin of Omission tells the story of Stephen (Malusi) Mzamane, a young Anglican priest who must travel to his mother's rural home to inform her of the death of his older brother.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>