

Artjamming to open megastore at V&A Waterfront

Some people jam to music, here people jam art. At Artjamming, you simply walk in and let your imagination take hold of the paint brushes. The new Artjamming Megastore opens its doors at the V&A Waterfront this October. If painting on canvas is not your thing, try your hand at mosaic or the Crazy Slash Zone. No drawing or painting skills are required, just a mind that is ready to be creative to the sounds of our chillout beat. Artjamming offers birthday parties, school holiday programmes, corporate and team building, mobile events and exhibitions. For more, go to www.artjamming.co.za.
