

Volkswagen's best seller gets a commercial update

Polo Vivo, South Africa's top selling passenger car in 2015, is extending its appeal to commercial customers with the introduction of half-ton Xpress.

The Xpress - the brainchild of Chairman and Managing Director of Volkswagen Group South Africa - Thomas Schaefer, was designed and developed locally by the Engineering Division in Uitenhage in response to requests from fleet owners for a small delivery vehicle from Volkswagen.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>