

New appointments at Foord Asset Management

Andrew Coultas has been appointed to the investment team as an equity analyst focusing predominantly on global companies listed in developed financial markets, while Morris Crookes has been appointed to Foord's business development and client service team and will focus predominantly on servicing advisors and investors in the KZN region.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>