

Leaders on the Move first tour

The first tour of the 2016 Sunday Times Top 100 Companies Leaders on the Move series starts on Friday 4 March. Alan Pullinger, Deputy CEO of First Rand Limited; Herman Mashaba, Executive Chairman of Lephatsi Investments; Yusuf Randerera Rees, CEO of Awethu Projects; and Mark Stewart, CEO of BDO are the selected mentors for the day.

Leaders on the Move serves as a mentorship programme for business leaders. The delegates - including business owners, line-managers and students - will spend an hour networking at the respective offices of each CEO. Eight tours are scheduled for 2016.
