

Transnet Port Terminals makes donation to school

Transnet Port Terminals (TPT) has donated school uniforms and shoes to learners of Buhlebuzile Primary School in the Lubisi area of Pongola.

The school also received minor renovations to their facility. The renovations consisted of a fresh coat of paint inside and outside a block of classrooms as well as replacing classrooms doors.

The donation forms part of TPT contractors contributing a percentage of their salary towards small businesses in the area in which the company operates.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>