

SABC & Survivor: what the hell happened?

SABC cut out the most pivotal moment in the whole 18 episode Survivor series. They removed the final jury questions and voting of the winner.

How actually does one become so stupid?

Have we actually gotten to the point where 3 year olds are handling the controls at SABC.

In the history of Survivor broadcasting (syndicated in over 30 countries) has any broadcaster taken out the final question and voting round.

With their lack of payment to South African producers, rerunning countless B-grade series and ballsing up of reality shows, SABC should be shut down due to incompetence.

Oh, how the mind wonders?
