

Jess Cleland appointed Broll COO: Africa

The Broll Property Group has appointed Jess Cleland as COO: Africa. This includes responsibility for all operations outside of South Africa, in addition to heading up the group's valuations and property intel divisions across all countries.

Since joining Broll in 2013, Cleland's positions have included group managing director: East Africa & Indian Ocean, and divisional director: strategy and consulting within Occupier Services. Prior to joining Broll, she held the role of research director at IPD (now MSCI) South Africa, and has gained a wealth of experience from working in a range of countries across the globe.

Cleland holds an MBA majoring in International Business, a Master of Property and a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) in Mechanical Engineering. She is an active industry speaker, has served on numerous boards and committees, was a 2020 API Award for Women in Africa Real Estate finalist, and in 2018 won Professional of the Year – Private Sector (Gauteng) at the South African Women in Property Awards. She is a fellow of the Mauritius Institute of Directors and has achieved the status of Certified Business Advisor from the Institute of Business Advisors of Southern Africa.
