

Container Ads wins Amway MSC contract

Container Ads has won the Amway contract to supply mobile selection centres into the mass market environments. Utilising converted containers as retail shops Container Ads are opening up a completely new environment for retailers to enter into new markets without the need of long term lease agreements or large financial investments into unknown markets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>