

Darryl Marcus to lead Pypestream's SA office

Darryl Marcus will be heading US startup Pypestream's newly opened South African office as the GM Southern Africa. Pypestream was co-founded by South African expat Richard Smullen and is a private enterprise mobile messaging platform that influences intelligent automation and chat-bot technology.

Pypestream's technology provides businesses in all industries with the ability to communicate with customers at scale via mobile messaging.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>