

SAB offers free advertising space

SAB is offering free advertising space for small and medium businesses on Jan Smuts Avenue billboard during Global Entrepreneurship Month.

The entrepreneur's business name, business service description and contact details will be featured on the billboard. The display will provide the opportunity to increase the visibility of small/medium businesses and its business opportunities.

The free advertising began on 10 November 2017 and will end on 10 December 2017.
