

WhatsApp adds video calling

WhatsApp is adding WhatsApp video calling to enable its more than one billion users to make video calls across Android, iPhone and Windows devices. It wants to make these features available to everyone, not just those who can afford the most expensive new phones or live in countries with the best cellular networks. For more information, go to <https://blog.whatsapp.com/>.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>