Job description

At In Vision Marketing we are serious about the personal growth of our employees. That is why we provide multiple opportunities for advancement.

Our current focus:

We are looking for exceptional people to assist us in our market-leading campaigns.

You should share our consistent aspiration to improve and have passion for customers services.

You will begin a lasting relationship between potential customers and clients using the simplest and oldest method of communication -one person speaking to another.

You will be engaging customers continuously, and explaining our clients product and services.

People with outgoing personality and sense of humor often enjoy this part of the role, and the more customer you attract the more sales you make.

We are a company with a big commitment to the continuing development of everyone who works for us, strongly supporting career progression and facilitating a culture which encourages innovative ideas and appreciate that our talent is the key to our success.

Our commitment to diversity and inclusion helps ensure the ideas, perspectives and experiences of individual employees support a culture of learning and attract world-class talent. We welcome applications from all sections of the community and candidates will be equally assessed and selected based on objective criteria.
