At Maenetja Direct Marketing, we take the personal growth of our team members seriously, offering numerous avenues for advancement.

Currently, we are seeking exceptional individuals to join us in our industry-leading campaigns. Ideal candidates will share our unwavering commitment to improvement and possess a passion for customer service.

In this role, you'll initiate enduring relationships between potential customers and clients using the simplest and most traditional method of communication: one person speaking to another. Your responsibilities will include continuous engagement with customers and explaining our clients' products and services.

Individuals with outgoing personalities and a sense of humour often excel in this role, as building rapport with customers leads to increased sales opportunities.

We are deeply committed to the ongoing development of our team members, supporting career progression and fostering a culture that encourages innovative ideas. We recognise that our talent is key to our success and embrace diversity and inclusion to ensure a culture of learning.

We welcome applications from all sections of the community, and candidates will be evaluated based on objective criteria.

Key attributes:

- Excellent communication skills
- Open-mindedness
- Willingness to work under pressure
- Strong work ethic
