

Godwin Oche is the new CEO of Monument Distillers Nigeria

Monument Distillers Nigeria has appointed Godwin Oche as its CEO. Oche is a chemical engineer by training, and his qualifications include a PGD in business administration and an MBA in marketing from Enugu State University of Science and Technology Business School.

He joins the company from AB Inbev where, in January 2016, as a result of the integration of SABMiller and AB InBev, he was made the regional director/general manager of AB Inbev's brewery in Onitsha.
