

Three generations of Indian filmmakers

Seven movies will be screened free to the public in a joint project between Cinema Nouveau screened by Jameson and the Indian High Commission in South Africa. The work and inspiration of some of the most talented Indian filmmakers, spanning three generations, will be featured during the Indian Film Festival at Cinema Nouveau: Cavendish (Cape Town) 20 - 26 October 2006; Rosebank (Johannesburg) 27 October - 2 November; Brooklyn (Pretoria) 3 - 9 November; and Gateway (Durban) 10 -16 November.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>