

MTN welcome in Zimbabwe says Econet

Harare: Econet says MTN is welcome in Zimbabwe after reports that Africa's biggest cellular company was keen to invest in the country.

Chief executive officer, Douglas Mboweni told media here that the company always thrives on competition all the markets it is operating.

Reports have suggested that South Africa's MTN was interested in investing in Zimbabwe's mobile phone network industry. Mboweni says Econet is not wary of such developments.

Read the full article on ITNewsAfrica.com.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>