Marriott International has entered into an agreement with Landmark Sabbour to bring the W Brand's design to Cairo. Landmark Sabbour recently launched 1-Ninety. With a total investment of EGP 28 billion ($1.75bn).

Located just 25 kilometres from Cairo International Airport, the new hotel will add its own vibrant W experience to the ultra-modern urban landscape of New Cairo.

When W Cairo opens in 2024, the hotel will embody W Hotels' work hard, play hard philosophy with a signature WET Deck (pool deck), AWAY Spa and FIT Fitness Centre alongside 350 rooms and suites. The hotel is also expected to offer multiple food and beverage venues, mix and mingle spaces, plus a meetings and events space which will include a 500-square-metre Great Room.

"New Cairo is a burgeoning, dynamic lifestyle destination in Cairo, and we are excited to collaborate with Landmark Sabbour to redefine modern luxury in one of the most awe-inspiring travel destinations in the world," said Alex Kyriakidis, president and managing director, Middle East and Africa, Marriott International. "This signing not only illustrates our commitment to Egypt but also reinforces the increasing demand for the W Hotels brand in this region and around the globe."

Eng. Amr Sultan, managing director of Landmark Sabbour, added: "We choose to work with those who share our development standards, innovative perception of luxury community building, and whose objectives align with our own. Our collaboration with Marriot International represents another milestone in our growth; it further demonstrates our commitment to collaborate with industry leaders and stands as a chance to integrate the unique customer-centric services of W Hotels into our line of upscale products in 1-Ninety."
