

Egypt's central bank taking action to regulate forex market

By Ahmed Tolba 28 Dec 2022

Egypt's central bank said on Monday it is taking all necessary actions to regulate the foreign exchange market and achieve monetary stability in the near future.

Source: Supplied.

The bank had observed "illegal practices related to the foreign exchange market" and illegal attempts to make quick profits, its statement said.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com