

This week's biggest media stories in SA

Acumen Media's latest report of the biggest media stories in South Africa shows that Julius Malema grabbed the most headlines for the week.

Here are the other big stories after Malema:

- The Enock Mpianzi forensic report and the finding of eight-year-old Tazne Van Wyk.
- Dudu Myeni's much-awaited appearance in court.
- Helen Zille's decision to remove her Twitter account after realisations about the social media platform.
- The University of KwaZulu-Natal's on-going protests.
- Stella Ndabeni-Abrahams's comment about never being in Switzerland but being in Geneva, a city that is in Switzerland.
- The Springboks being named the Laureus World Team of the Year 2020.
- A suspected far-right extremist killing nine people in Germany.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>