

Spree Autumn/Winter 2014 Lookboard event

Spree.co.za, one of South Africa's leading online shopping sites, presented their Autumn/Winter 2014 Lookboard in conjunction with their first birthday celebration at Wembley Square in Gardens, Cape Town on Thursday evening, 10 April.

The glamorous guest list included renown local designers Michelle Ludek and Cari Stephenson as well as Masterchef South Africa winner Kamini Pather, Bold and Beautiful's Texas Battle and TV presenter Vanessa Haywood.

More than 150 fashion enthusiasts witnessed the unique, curated styles of Spree's much talked about ladies' range as well as the newly launched menswear range.

Models strutted their stuff in the name of fashion to a Dino Moran music mix, created specifically for the spree event.

Key ladies trends on show included athletic-inspired items in luxurious fabrics and finishes, sophisticated grunge, and immaculately cut pieces in simple shapes. For men, heavy-duty outerwear was a key trend as well as distressed jeans, bold and colourful knits and lumberjack-style checks.
