

Zimbabwe CEO mover and shaker in hospitality industry

At the Hospitality Investment Conference Africa (HICA) yesterday, Monday 1 November 2010, Shingi Munyeza, Group CEO of African Sun Hotels in Zimbabwe was announced as the hospitality industry's 'mover and shaker' of the year. He played a pivotal role in driving the vision of African Sun to, among others, realise the attainment of 5500 rooms by 2012 - making African Sun one of fastest growing hospitality groups in sub-Saharan Africa. He is involved in the policy making bodies for tourism in Zimbabwe and the SADC region and served on various key forums like the World Economic Forum in Tanzania in 2010.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>