

2019 Global Awards live judging sessions to be held in 8 countries worldwide

Ahead of the 2019 New York Festivals Global Awards, eight live judging sessions will be held at agencies around the world including Australia, Brazil, Germany, India, Mexico, Dubai, the United Kingdom and the USA.

These live sessions provide the opportunity to review digital-based works as well as collateral materials that support a campaign and some which cannot be judged online.

“The live jury sessions create a local forum for top talent from within the industry to debate, discuss and vote on the top work from around the world. This leads to conversations between creative leaders, which would have never happened without these sessions,” adds Chris Rudnick, executive creative director at TBWA\WorldHealth USA.

The 2019 live jury hosts are:

- Diego Freitas and Mauro Arruda, co-managing directors at FCB Brazil

- Gustavo Pratt, managing director, chief creative and innovation officer at Asterisco Healthcare Communications Mexico
- Alok Gadkar, managing director and executive creative director at The Classic Partnership Advertising Dubai
- Dick Dunford, executive creative director at TBWA\WorldHealth London
- Praful Akali, founder and managing director at Medulla Communications India
- Chris Rudnick, executive creative director at TBWA\WorldHealth USA
- Gerrard Malcolm, director at Insight Australia
- Mike Rodgers, creative partner and managing partner at Serviceplan Health & Life Germany

The 2019 Grand Jury sessions will take place online, allowing entries to be viewed comprehensively by an international jury from regions with both established and growing healthcare markets. The 2019 Executive Jury session will take place in New York City on 22 October 2019.
