

The Brave Group announces three significant senior hires

The Brave Group has announced three key senior hires.

Monica Gomes has been appointed director of integrated client services, intending to use her broad industry experience to drive excellence and mentor the team. Robyn Jones takes on the position of integrated business unit director, aiming to improve client success and internal growth through her extensive marketing experience. Finally, Courtney Chapple has been appointed director of AI and new business development. Chapple plans to incorporate AI into key initiatives and provide exceptional value to clients.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>