

Montego Pet Nutrition appoints new supply chain executive

Montego Pet Nutrition (Montego) has further expanded its executive committee with the appointment of Johann Kotze as supply chain executive.

Kotze was promoted to supply chain executive eight months after joining the company and has been a fantastic resource in leading the acquisition of six distribution facilities during 2022, improving service delivery to customers and contributing to the efficiency of Montego's fleet management and planning process.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>