

La Colombe ranked 6th in TripAdvisor's Traveller's Choice Awards

La Colombe in Constantia, Cape Town was placed sixth in TripAdvisor's list of the world's top fine dining restaurants for 2018 in the Traveller's Choice Awards; the only South African restaurant on the list. The number one spot was awarded to Au Crocodile in Strasbourg, France.

Award-winners were determined using an algorithm that analyses the millions of reviews and opinions collected over a 12-month period from travellers around the world, taking into consideration the quality and quantity of the reviews.

New look and refreshed menu for La Colombe

Ruth Cooper 5 Sep 2018

One spot up from last year's ranking, the La Colombe team headed by chef proprietor, Scot Kirton, and executive chef, James Gaag, can be very proud of this international recognition. TripAdvisor described the Western Cape spot as a "fantastic fine dining experience."

© Andrea van der Spuy

It is the only South African restaurant to be recognised on TripAdvisor's Top 25. "La Colombe has consistently received worldwide acclaim and our passionate team is extremely proud to be recognised amongst the top restaurants in the world by TripAdvisor," comments Kirton.