

Liefde By Die Dam on Youth Day

On 16 June, 2016, South Africa's youths will be celebrated with a day of music at Emmarentia Dam, Joburg. The full-day family event is named after Valiant Swart's chart-topping hit of the same name. Liefde By Die Dam is a showcase for the best in local talent.

Join the groundbreaking group Die Heuwels Fantasties, revered for their unique music and energetic live performances, on Youth Day. Joining Die Heuwels on the main stage is the iconic frontman of legendary South African rock bands Fokofolisiekar and Van Coke Kartel, Francois van Coke who released his number-one eponymous debut album in 2015. Whilst lazing under the leafy trees of Emmarentia, Theuns Jordaan who is without a doubt one of the biggest voices Afrikaans with personal sales of more than 1.4 million, will serenade you. Adding to this stellar line-up is the man behind the name, Valiant Swart, taking audiences on a journey with his blues guitar and harmonica. To round off the day of entertainment are seven-times SAMA nominee all-girl group Blackbyrd, up-and-coming star Brendan Peyper, and Jozi favourite Majozi, who will bring you brand new songs from his newly released debut album.

For your day out at the dam there will be a delicious range of South Africa's best artisan food traders. You can also bring your own picnic and spread your blanket out for the perfect celebration of youth and music.

Time: 10am to 5pm.

Tickets: R160 Online/R460 VIP.

Purchase online at bit.ly/liefdebydiedam

www.facebook.com/LiefdeByDieDam

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>