Having established herself as a national treasure post her stint on Idols, Shekhinah became a household name after her 2016 hit single “Back to the Beach”. She also featured on the Black Coffee single, “Your Eyes”, and the Jesse Clegg single “Breathing” in the same year, raising her to stardom.

This multi-award-winning musical sensation has performed across the continent and has collaborated with several international artists and local brands. Her recent album Rosegold is currently the highest streamed album in the country and is certified platinum.

While in the country, Toni Braxton is also set to visit the Ronald McDonald House Charities South Africa in association with McDonald's.

Tickets for both the Johannesburg and Cape Town are officially sold out.
